

Whole farm planning workshop

Join us on Tuesday, October 9, 2018, 10 am-3 pm, at Town Bank, Community Room, 15815 State Rd 81, Darlington, WI.

Enjoy free lunch and hear from local farmers and experts how they save money, increase production, and enhance the health of the land.

Guest speakers include:

- Jacob Marty, transitioning to the next farm generation.
- Paul Dietmann, whole farm financial planning.
- Dan Smith, getting the most from your crop nutrients.
- Brian Pillsbury, fence and water for pastured livestock.

Registration, with lunch:

- $50 general admission.
- $30 for SW Badger members.
- Free for residents of Lafayette County and the Pecatonica River watershed.

RSVP by October 5th at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/whole-farm-planning-workshop-tickets-50029245821>.

Questions? Call 608-732-1202.

Event hosted by the Pecatonica Pride Watershed Association with the support of Southwest Badger, Lafayette County Regional Conservation Partnership Program (RCPP), and a grant from the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade, and Consumer Protection.

